The EWI is coming

JR Photographic is honored to be the official photographer for the 2009 EWI Leadership Conference and Annual Meeting in Louisville, KY. This year, for the first time we are offering a sixteen (16) page soft cover Custom Designed Magazine with images from the event. This Magazine is specially priced at $20.00 with free shipping and handling for preorders before September 20, 2009. Orders received after that date will be $ 25.00 plus $5.00 for shipping and handling. These Custom Designed Magazines will make a great memento of this special event.

The printer requires a minimum order of 50 magazines for the order to be processed. We are asking for your preorders of the Magazine as soon as possible to be sure we can meet our minimum. If EWI is unable to meet the minimum then no payments will be processed and any checks will be voided and returned.
